VOL. IV. NO. 159.

CHICAGO, THURSDAY, JULY 7, 1898.

PRICE, 5 CENTS

SANTELO'S GOOD RACE.

There was more than an average attendance at Washington Park Wednesday. Although there were only five races on the card George Rose predicted good racing. He said: "The fields are well matched." The day was warm and the track in perfect condition.

Libertine opened at 7 to 5 and went to the post at 4 to 1. He seemed to lack speed, and only got third place by a vigorous ride through the home stretch. Madrilene, off in front, won in a walk. Diggs was second for a time but Tenole got the place easily. Against Curl's gelding even money to show could be had and he was strongly played by "the talent." Some of the Kentuckians got 4 to 1 against Madrilene.

Clawson, off in front for the second time of the day on Santello, again was not headed, although Jolly Roger gave him a good race. Olinthus was third until close in, when up came McGuigan's 100 to 1 shot, Prince McClurg, and nipped him for the show money. "Virginia" Bradley bet $5 each way on Mazie V. at 100 to 1, but she was "absolutely" three-eighths from home, and Mazo did little better. Sea Lion, who has not started since Memphis, quit at the last quarter.

Clawson won again, this time on Floronzo, the favorite, at 3 to 1. Going around the first turn he was shut off, and up the back stretch gained gradually, reaching the front at the head of the home stretch and from there coming on without urging.

Lew Hopper took the track at the quarter but Hohenzollern passed him and led until beaten by Floronzo. Lew Hopper quit at the eighth and Joe Clark coming on gamely in a drive just beat Hohenzollern for the place. Braw Lad showed speed for three quarters. Refugee was never prominent.

If there had been any chance to beat Algel the start would have fixed him, as, after a long delay, occasioned by the bad acting Meddler, the word was given to what is known as a "Gilman start," that is, the horses were badly strung out. When once on his stride, Algel had only Meddler behind him and after a three-sixteenths run the favorite was still several lengths behind the leader, Eugenia Wickes, who had taken command passing the flag. Thorpe waited for the homestretch, then went to work and a sixteenth from the wire Algel was winning from Traverser, who just managed to beat Eugenia Wickes.

David Tenny won the best contested race of the day. W. Martin took him to the front and he was not caught, although the finish was a whipping one through the last eighth for the first three. Found was second from the quarter to the last three-sixteenths post. Uarda and Mistral II, had a great fight for the place and Official was close up. Starter Dwyer got the horses off splendidly and Indra, on the inside, led the first-quarter.

James O'Leary's sheet writer says that it was Losey who made the recent betting mistake and the bookmaker was not at fault.

Lew Williams is badly off with rheumatism, although able to get around.

Mat Hogan bet $500 on Madrilene at 2 to 1. Billy Donahue and Dan Honig were out.

Eugene Leigh says: "My boy, N. Turner, was set down for a bad ride; still, the day he rode Enchanter the horse ran the first half in 47½ seconds, while at his next start (Thorpe up) he covered a like distance in 49 seconds."

If the rumor that William McGuigan is to sell his horses Wednesday next and retire from the turf proves to be true many persons will regret the loss of so competent a trainer.

C. S. Bush, of New Orleans, came to town yesterday for a stay of one or more months. He reports Henry Johnson at Capron Springs, Va.

The judges and Secretary Howard had a long conference after the races, the import of which was not learned.

Dave Waldo says that Charles Dugan formerly part owner of McGuigan's Hot Springs stable, informed him that the reason for "Umbrella Bill's" retirement from active turf affairs is because of heart disease, which makes probable the dropping dead of a man, as was the case of Dr. McLean at Cincinnati.

May W. is now at Washington Park, is eating well and will recover. Her ailment was pleurisy instead of catarrhal fever.

Floronzo, who set a new record, was by many pounds the best horse in the race. He recently while working, ran off with Rose and covered a half mile in 48 seconds. Tully Coulter says that he showed such form in California before starting there last winter that Tom Ryan was willing to pay B. J. Johnston $4,000 for him.

A race between Enchanter and Meddler would be interesting.

McGuigan's trio of fast horses, Bannockburn, Ben Hadad and Boanerges, all in fine racing fix, will undoubtedly realize a large sum of money. The owner is well able to live quietly the balance of his life on his fine farm in Arkansas. His charming family would be a comfort to any man, and the veteran turfman for pasture can train the yearlings lately bought by him for Mr. Dugan.

Willie Martin said: "It was well for the backers of David Tenny that I kept my eye behind. I saw Mistral coming, and went at it hard. None too soon, as had I begun one stride farther on, the race had been Mistral's."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The announcement that M. E. Walden thinks of taking the colt, Billy Mason, to Montana to try for some of the short-distance purses brings up the suggestion that the Anaconda and Butte tracks are remarkably good places to take in with horses gifted with a high order of speed which they are able to maintain only over a short route. Short dashes of three-eighths and a half mile are very popular with Montana patrons of racing and are always the medium of tremendous speculation. With such colts as Richard J. Dave Waldo or others of their extraordinary turn of speed no end of money could be carried away from those tracks. The meeting at Anaconda began last Saturday and some sixty odd days of racing remain to be disposed of on the circuit composed of Anaconda, Butte and Hamilton.

Thirteen stakes, to be run at the Harlem meeting, which begins directly after the Washington Park meeting ends, have been announced. They close July 18. They are on the added money system, the sums added ranging from $750 to $1,500.

Time, 12½, 24½, 49, 1:14½.

Winner—B. c. 3, by Hanover—Tarantella.

Start fair. Won easily. Handesel was easily the best. Is very good now and a wonder in the mud. Kitefoot will improve on this race. She closed strong. Lambent is very good, likes this track and closed fast and gamely. Swiftmas was overweighted. He took the long route and broke slowly at the start. He got a bad ride. Dr. Black is improving steadily, but he is only a fair horse. He was eased at the end. Sensational ran his race. Premier was short and needs racing.

Scratched—Don Blas, 115; Previous, 119; Fairy Dale, 92.

Winner—B. c. by Islington—Songstress.

Start straggling. Won handily. Kinley Mack closed strong at the end. He was easily the best. The Gardener got off poorly and took the long route. He finished fast and ran his race. Perfume showed fine speed. Is a good looker and was short. Meddlesome is short and is also a good looker. Full Dress closed a big gap. Strangest had no chance with the ride. Reeves is a good looker but is only ordinary. Ben Lodi had no chance at the start. Savory was short and eased up.

Scratched—Haytime, 108; Five o'Clock, 102; St. Sophia, 97; Bettie Gray, 97.

Time, 25½, 50½, 1:02½, 1:15, 1:41½.

Winner—Ch. c. 4, by Turco—Sister Louise.

Start good. Won handily. Bannock was best. He was bid up to $2,000. He has class and wants a route and a strong jockey. Nosey ran game and true. He is very good, but dislikes weight. Rotterdam appeared to be galloping the first three-quarters and ran a great race for him. He likes this track. Merlin was outclassed, but ran well. Leedsville is of no present account. He sulked and is uncertain. Watch him in sloppy going and when he outclasses his field on a speed basis.

Scratched—Domitor, 110; Aurum, 94; Athanas, 94; Glonoine, 94.

Winner—Ch. c. 4, by Order—Victorine.

Start good. Won handily. Ornament was lucky and perfectly handled. He was a good but not a great horse today. Tillo was unlucky. He appeared to be galloping the first mile. He was forced into a pocket by Ornament and shut off on the stretch turn. He ran a wonderful race and is better than he ever was before. George Keene showed surprising form for him with such opposition. He appears to like this track. Semper Ego lacked speed throughout and is evidently stalling, and will get worse.

Scratched—Howard Mann, 95.

Winner—B. c. by Kingston—Lady Ballard.

Start straggling. Won easily. Kingdon merely galloped. He outclassed his field and was waited with to near the finish. Rhinelander liked the track and came like a cyclone at the end. He is very good. Muggins closed strong and ran the best race of his career. Alpen quit badly.

Post 15 minutes. Start good. The first four were driving hard. Cosner was disqualified for fouling, and Oriental M., Padrona and Nellorine were placed one, two, three respectively. Cosner was the best of a poor lot. At that he ran away half a mile in all in two false breaks. Colonel Frank Waters was carried wide on the first turn by Gladius, spoiling his chances. Padrona was pinched on the rail in the stretch.

Winner—Ch. f, 4, by Fonso—Peg Woffington.
Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second, third and fourth driving. Madrilene won as she pleased. She was in a soft spot and heavily played. She is more than an ordinary filly. She was never extended. Tenole overcame himself. He had good luck. Libertine, off in a pocket, could never get through. His race was not to the mark. Shields was weak from re-ducking and could not do him justice. Digs also suffered from a bad ride. Dorsey wobbled all over with him the entire route. Daily Racing Form was high in flesh and looked well. He can do better than this. Summer Sea was always outrun.

Winner—Br. c, by St. Andrew—Lorilla.
Post 12 minutes. Start good. Won cleverly; second, third and fourth driving. Santello was a good horse. He was in a soft spot and always held his field safe. Olintus will hardly do. This colt has had too much of it. He has class, but is out of form. Jolly Roger ran a good race. Tab him closely. He is good right now and can win almost anywhere. Prince McClurg had bad luck in the race. He was sharply shut off on the far turn and from there on a winning race. He is more than an ordinary colt. Mazie V and Mazo were both short on speed. Both can do better. Sea Lion showed a flash of speed, but was evidently short.
Overweights—Sea Lion, 4 pounds; Olintus, 4.
